Migrating gray whales visit the waters offshore. Southwest of the city is La Bufadora blowhole.

What is the Service Charge?

Effective April 1, 2020, a $15.50 USD service charge has been automatically added, per guest per day (for guests three years and older), to your shipboard account for the following staterooms (Studio, Inside, Ocean View and Balcony). For The Club Balcony Staterooms, the service charge is $18.00 USD per guest per day (for guests three years and older). For The Haven and Suite staterooms, the service charge is $18.50 USD per guest per day (for guests three years and older). These charges will be shared among those staff members, including the restaurant staff, stateroom stewards and other behind-the-scenes staff, who have provided services to enhance your overall cruise experience. However, certain staff positions (e.g., Beverage service staff, Butlers, Concierge and Youth Counselors) do not benefit from this shared service charge because they provided service to only some guests, not all.

In-Room Mini Bar

We will take a final inventory and lock the Mini Bar on the last evening of your cruise. Please let your Stateroom Steward know if you need to keep the Mini Bar unlocked. Beverages can be ordered from Room Service by pressing the speed dial button.

Liquor Distribution

All liquor bottles purchased from our onboard gift shop and in the ports of call will be delivered in your stateroom on Saturday evening between 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM. If it was not delivered during this time then please pick it up at Starbucks ®, Deck 6 Mid, on Sunday between 6:00 AM to 8:30 AM

Casino

Have chips, Instant Win or slot vouchers to cash in? Don't forget to cash out at the Casino Cage before 2:00am on the last day when the Casino closes.

Airport transfers or Shore Excursions

Are you all set for your departure? Do you have your airport transfers or shore excursions booked already? Remember public transportation or taxis are always limited in the port so check with our Guest Service or Shore Excursions desks for options. Let us make your departure worry free.

Customs Allowance

Effective February 1, 2018, returning residents (US) and non-residents (Non-US) meeting the below listed requirements will NO longer be required to present written declarations to a CBP Primary Control officer upon arrival from an international destination.

Returning residents and non-residents may make an oral declaration (not required to complete a Customs Declaration) if:

- The value of goods being brought back does not exceed allowable amount.
- Accompanying articles are not forwarded in bond;
- None of the articles are being imported for others or for sale

If you do not meet the requirements and have exceeded your Customs exemption ONLY then you must present written declarations to a CBP Primary Control officer and the head of the household must present themselves with receipts to United States Customs and Border Protection officials in the terminal in Los Angeles.

Custom Declaration Forms are available at the Guest Services desk located in the Atrium, Deck 6.

U.S. RESIDENTS ALLOWANCE - What can you bring back to U.S.?

If declared, your Duty Exemption includes:

- Purchases up to $800 per person
- For persons 21 years of age & older, a total of 1 carton cigarettes may be imported free of duty. Up to 100 cigars may be imported duty free.
- For persons 21 years of age & older, a total of 1 liter of alcohol may be imported duty-free.

Tax Exempt Items: Artwork (including purchases onboard), anything made in the U.S.A., antiques, loose gemstones (Rubies, Emeralds, Diamonds & Sapphires).

Special Note: As per US Customs and Border Protection Officials, strictly no photography or videotaping is allowed in the terminal. The use of cellular phones is also prohibited.

BELOW ARE YOUR OPTIONS FOR LEAVING THE SHIP:

Option 1: Easy Self-Assist Disembarkation (safely carry your own entire luggage(s) with you)

If you can safely carry off your own bags/suitcases, then Self-Assist may be the best option for you. There is no need to look for your luggage inside the cruise terminal. Keep in mind, you have to be physically able to carry all your bags/suitcases with you and that there may be stairs, escalators, and lines to contend with. Norwegian Team Members are not permitted to assist with your luggage in accordance with US Labor Union Regulations. We encourage guests with early arrangements to take advantage of this option.

- You can be the first group off the ship (once it's cleared by local officials) approximately 7:30AM
- You don't have to worry about the color-coded tag disembarkation system which lets you avoid the crowd in the baggage claim hall; you will carry off your entire luggage with you.
- Keep your bags/suitcases inside your stateroom the night before
- Proceed only to the disembarkation level once your Self-Assist has been announced

Option 2: Feel Free Disembarkation (claim your luggage inside the Cruise Terminal luggage hall)

If you wish to enjoy your last morning onboard the ship, then Feel Free to relax, have a nice breakfast, or one last cup of coffee. Simply pick up a new color luggage tag for the time you wish to disembark the ship. Remove any old tags and attach these new color tags to your luggage, and place outside your room before you retire, but no later than 11:00 PM on Saturday evening. Make sure to keep an overnight bag with clothes, shoes, and essentials for the last morning. Keep your important items, (medications, proof of citizenship/travel documents and airline tickets ...) in your carry-on luggage.

Whichever disembarkation option above you choose, please refer to the back page for the colors, times, and location to pick-up the luggage tags. Each color will have limited availability. If the color is out, then kindly select another color. Use one tag per checked luggage.

For luggage that is placed outside your room to be collected by our Housekeeping Team, please avoid placing any personal items that may be fragile or of high value plus ensure you have placed your new color tag on all your suitcases.

FAREWELL, FOR NOW.

Disembarkation Colors & Times

Please choose one of the following colors which best suits your travel plans once we have returned to Los Angeles. The color luggage tags may be picked up near the Guest Services Desk & Cruise Next Desk, Deck 6, mid ship.
